HISTORY.

THE First Congregational Church in Sutton was organized in the autumn of 1720, with ten members, all males. On the 9th day of November the same year, and soon after the formation of the Church, Rev. JOHN MCKINSTRY, of Scotland, was ordained and installed the first pastor. The ministry of Mr. McKinstry continued a little less than eight years. He was dismissed in consequence of a difference of opinion in relation to church government, Mr. McKinstry leaning strongly to Presbyterianism.

Rev. DAVID HALL, D. D., succeeded Mr. McKinstry in the pastorate of the church, being ordained and installed October 15th, 1729. Dr. Hall served the church with great faithfulness and ability for a period of sixty years, including his entire ministry. He fell asleep full of years and honors as a servant of God, May 8th, 1789. Dr. Hall's ministry covered the most important period of the country's history, as well as the history of the Church. The zeal and ability with which he defended and maintained the true principles of civil and religious liberty, are manifest in his manuscript and published sermons.

Dr. Hall was succeeded by Rev. EDMUND MILLS, who was ordained June 22d, 1790, and died greatly lamented, November 7th, 1823. He served the church in the ministry more than thirty-five years. His praise was in all the churches of this region, where he was well known and greatly beloved. Dr. Hall and Mr. Mills filled the office of pastor in the church nearly a century.

Rev. JOHN MALTBY succeeded Mr. Mills, and after preaching eight years, removed to Bangor, Maine, where he became the pastor of the Hammond Street Church. Here he continued until his death, which occurred in 18—. The remaining ministers who have served the church as pastors are all living.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

1. We believe in the existence of one only living and personal God, the Creator, Pre-serv-er and Supreme Ruler of the universe, who worketh all things according to the counsel of his own will, and whose government is holy, just and good.

2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God; and that they are the only authoritative record of the Divine Will.

3. We believe that God is revealed in the Scriptures as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; these three being in all Divine attributes equal.

4. We believe that man has fallen from the state of innocence in which he was created; and that consequently all mankind are destitute of holiness until renewed by the Holy Spirit.

5. We believe that God so loved the world that He gave His Only Begotten Son to die for its redemption; that our Lord Jesus Christ took upon himself our nature, and by his obedience, sufferings and death, made an atonement sufficient for the salvation of all men; and that forgiveness of sin and eternal life are, therefore, freely offered to all who repent of sin, with faith in Christ.

6. We believe that in the same love in which God gave His Son to die, He has also sent the Holy Spirit to make his truth effectual; that through his gracious influences alone, men are convinced of sin, renewed and sanctified; and that those who are thus led to repentance, having been chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world, will be kept by the power of God, through faith, unto salvation.

7. We believe that for the comfort and strengthening of His followers, and for the testimony to His truth, our Lord has established in the world a visible church; that it is the duty of all Christians to enter into covenant with it, professing thus their faith in Christ, and observing the ordinances of Baptism and the Lord's Supper; that it is the privilege of believing parents to consecrate their children also to God in Baptism; and that all believers, visibly united, though called by different names, are the one body of Christ, sacredly bound to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace.

8. We believe that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and of the unjust; that all must give account to Christ of the deeds done in the body; and that the wicked will go away into everlasting punishment, and the righteous into life eternal.

Do you accept this as the declaration of your faith?

[Baptism will now be administered to those not baptised in infancy.]

COVENANT.

You do solemnly acknowledge the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost to be your God forever — you avow that you love Him supremely — you cheerfully dedicate yourselves to His service — you gratefully enter into covenant with Him as your most constant Friend. In humble reliance upon his aid you avow your purpose to seek habitual communion with Him in prayer; to give diligent attendance to his word and ordinances; to prize above all things else the honor of his kingdom; and to adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour, by a blameless life.

Striving thus to be perfect as He is perfect, you humbly trust in the atoning blood of Christ for the pardon of your sins; you depend upon the infinite grace of the Holy Spirit for your sanctification; committing your souls to Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory, with exceeding joy.

You also enter into fraternal covenant with this church that you will study its peace, its purity, and its liberty; that you will love and watch over its members as brethren; and that you will so order your life as to do honor to its faith and ordinances by your example.

Do you thus covenant with God and with his people?

[The members of the church, rising, will reciprocate the covenant as follows.]

We, then, the members of this church, receive you to our fellowship and communion, praying that you may "grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ." We engage to sympathize with you, to watch over and admonish you, and by our prayers and exhortations to help you on in the christian course. And may "the God of peace that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen."

BY-LAWS.

1. The Pastor shall be Moderator, and in his absence the duties of this office shall be discharged by the oldest Deacon present.

2. There shall be a Standing Committee of five, of which the acting Deacons shall be ex-officio members, whose duty it shall be to examine all candidates for admission to the church, whether on profession of their faith or by recommendation from other churches; also to watch over the purity, peace and order of the church, and to take such measures to promote these as to them may seem best, subject to the order of the church.

3. The Deacons, ex-officio, shall be permanent Treasurer, and shall have charge of all the funds of the church, and pay them out upon the order of the church.

4. There shall be an annual meeting of the church on the day of the State Fair, in the month of April. At this meeting the Clerk shall report the statistics of the church, the Treasurer shall make his report, and the officers, including a Clerk, shall be chosen, their election to be by ballot.

5. The Moderator may call meetings of the church at pleasure and it shall be his duty to do it when requested by two or more brethren, their request and the reasons for it being given in writing.

6. No meeting shall be legal and its acts valid unless held on the Sabbath, or after three days' notice, the object of the meeting being stated in the notice.

7. In administering the discipline of the church, no member shall stand suspended longer than one year, except by special vote of the church.

8. When persons are received to membership on profession of their faith, they shall be propounded for admission at least two weeks before the time of their reception into the church. This rule may be dispensed with in special cases by vote of the church.

9. It is required of members of this church who remove from our bounds, to take letters of dismission as soon after removal as may be practicable, that they may unite with the church where they worship.

10. When any member or members of other churches come to reside with us, and join in our communion, it is expected that within one year they will transfer their connection to us.

11. Delegates to the Conference with which this church is connected shall be appointed in rotation, as their names appear upon the roll.

12. These By-Laws may be altered or enlarged upon recommendation of the Standing Committee, at any regular meeting of the church, notice being given for that purpose.

AND

THE RULES AND REGULATIONS

OF

THE FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH IN SUTTON.

WORCESTER:

PRINTED BY MOSES W. GROUT.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

1. We believe there is one God, subsisting in three persons, whose appellations in scripture are Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; who are the same in essence, and equal in every divine perfection.

2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, were written by men divinely inspired; and that they contain all the truths necessary to be known in order to salvation.

3. We believe that God hath a perfect knowledge of all his works, of the final issue of every event, and of the endless condition of every intelligent creature,—consequently a concerted plan relative to creation, providence, and redemption, from eternity.

4. We believe that God created man in his own image, holy or upright, and constituted him, in regard to the moral state of his posterity, their public head and representative.

5. We believe that, consequent upon man's fall and apostacy from God, human creatures came into existence, with hearts deceitful above all things, and in state of entire moral depravity.

6. We believe that, for the purpose of carrying forward the great work of man's redemption, the Lord Jesus Christ hath suffered and died in their room and stead, and in this way wrought out a complete atonement, tasted death for every man, magnified the divine law, and become its end to every one who believeth on him.

7. We believe that divine and saving grace, according to the original and sovereign designs of God, will be ultimately so far displayed, in the salvation of the hell-deserving, as will be most promotive of the divine glory, and the happiness of the intelligent Universe.

8. We believe that, in order for the impenitent to become the subjects of right affections of heart, and interested by faith in the atonement of Christ, they must be renewed in the temper of their minds by the divine and gracious agency of the Holy Ghost.

9. We believe that the Sacraments of the New Testament are two,—Baptism, and the Lord's Supper;—that those only, who have a sincere and cordial friendship for Christ, and have made a public profession of this friendship, can be admitted to the Lord's Supper; and that visible believers with their children and households only, can receive christian Baptism.

10. We believe that God hath mercifully engaged to keep all, who have been renewed by the Divine Spirit, from final apostacy, and enable them to persevere till they shall be made perfect in glory.

11. We believe that God hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by Jesus Christ, when he will receive the godly to everlasting happiness, and doom the wicked to everlasting sorrow.

COVENANT.

WE, the Members of this Church, severally and collectively, declare our serious belief of the Christian Religion, as contained in the Sacred Scriptures, and as set forth in general, in the well known Westminster Catechism, and in particular, in the confession of faith in this church. We acknowledge our everlasting and indispensable obligations to glorify our God, in all the duties of a godly, sober and religious life; and to conform ourselves to the rules of Christ's holy religion, so long as we live in the world.

In pursuance hereof, in the presence of God, angels, and men, we now give up ourselves to the LORD JEHOVAH, who is the FATHER, the SON, and the HOLY GHOST, to be his for ever. We avouch him to be our God and Father, our Saviour and Leader, our Sanctifier and Comforter;—We receive Him as our portion for ever; and we engage to love him, and to walk with him, with all our heart, and with all our soul.

We give up ourselves to the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the true God and eternal Life;—believing Him to be head over all things to the church, we engage and seal ourselves to Him, in the covenant of his grace, and rely upon Him, as our Prophet, Priest, and King, to bring us unto eternal blessedness. We especially promise and engage, depending on his powerful grace,—that, as a church of the Lord Jesus Christ, we will walk together, in communion with one another, and very particularly in all the duties of a church-state, according to the faith and order of the gospel—so far as the same is revealed to us in the Holy Scriptures;—that we will conscientiously sanctify the Sabbath, attend the public worship of God, observe the sacraments of the New Testament, and all the institutions of our holy religion—watchfully avoiding all stumbling-blocks and contentions;—that, with tenderness and love, we will mutually watch over, and help each other, under trials and afflictions, by advice and reproof, in the spirit of meekness, as there shall be occasion, to the utmost of our power;—that, so far as in us lies, we will strive together for the purity, peace, and enlargement of the church,—maintaining its discipline by a willing and active co-operation, and cheerfully submitting ourselves to the same;—that we will encourage and help each other, especially in all matters and things pertaining to the kingdom of God, as becometh a people whom the Lord hath bound up together in the bundle of life.

With ourselves, we also present our offspring to the Lord, purposing, by his help, to do our duty in the methods of a religious education, by catechising, teaching, and exhorting them;—by praying with them and for them, and walking exemplarily before them;—by striving to our utmost, to convince them of sin, of their original corruption, and of the necessity of their being born again in order to see the kingdom of God; by keeping them back from all unchristian levities and irregularities—and to this end using our utmost endeavors to discountenance and suppress vicious practices, and those amusements wherein the object is mere carnal gratification, contrary to christian sobriety, and calculated to defeat the instructions of wisdom, and to destroy their immortal souls for ever;—by pressing and urging them to the faith and repentance, and to a godly life;—and by wrestling with God for them night and day, that he would, of his mercy, in the way of his covenant, pour out his spirit upon our seed, and his blessing upon our offspring.

All this we do, with our souls bowed down before God, relying upon his Sovereign grace for succor, flying to the blood of the everlasting covenant for the pardon of our many sins, and praying that the glorious Lord, the great Shepherd and Bishop of our souls, would prepare and strengthen us “in every good work to do his will, working in us that which is well pleasing in his sight,” “to whom be glory in the church throughout all ages, world without end. AMEN.

ABSTRACT

OF THE RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE CHURCH.

The rules of the Church provide, that the Pastor perform the duties of Moderator and Clerk; and that in his absence these duties devolve on the oldest Deacon present; that the Deacons jointly be permanent Treasurer;—that the Pastor and Deacons be an Examining Committee;—and that there be also a Standing Committee.

The Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, and Examining Committee, have their usual and appropriate duties assigned. The standing Committee, is set “for the purity, peace, and order of the Church.” On them it devolves, “to notice all cases of scandal or delinquency; and with all suitable despatch to direct the attention of the church to them in a formal manner.”

The meetings of the Church for business are provided for by appropriate rules. The annual meeting is provided for as follows:—

“The church shall hold its annual meeting in June, on such day as the Pastor shall appoint. At this meeting the appointment of the Standing Committee shall be made, (by ballot,) which Committee shall embrace the acting Deacons, and consist of five members. The Treasurer shall make his annual Report. And the Clerk shall present a statistical account of the closing year, read the letters from non-resident members, and make such other communications as may be suited to the occasion.”

Additional Rules.

“When any member or members of other churches come to reside with us, and join in our communion, they shall within one year, transfer their connexion to us, or offer their reasons for not doing it. If the church shall be satisfied therewith, they may enjoy the privilege as before; but if not, and they still decline compliance, a correspondence shall be at once commenced on the subject with the church to which they belong.

“When any member or members of this church remove from us, they shall within one year transfer their connexion to the church, or churches, with which they join in communion, or offer their reasons for wishing to remain with us. If their reasons shall seem to the church insufficient, measures shall be taken forthwith to persuade them to comply with this regulation. If sufficient, they may remain with us as before;—but they shall then send us annually, in February or March, testimonials of their regular and exemplary christian conduct, certifying also where they have worshiped on the Sabbath, and where they have joined in receiving the Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper. And it shall be the duty of the Pastor and Standing Committee, to see that these two rules are faithfully complied with.

“In maintaining the discipline of this church, no member shall be held suspended from its privileges more than one year;—unless in that time some confession is made, or some signs of penitence appear, which seem to call for a prolonged season of trial.”

SPECIAL VOTE, subjoined by the church—“that although, on the removal of a member, a year is allowed for the transfer of his church connexion, yet do we consider it especially important, both to the church and to the member removing, that he take his connexion with him when he goes.”
